CAUTION:

- Exhaustion of State Court Remedies: In order to proceed in federal court you must ordinarily first exhaust your state court remedies as to each ground on which you request action by the federal court. This means that even if you have exhausted some grounds by raising them before the California Supreme Court, you must first present all other grounds to the California Supreme Court before raising them in your federal Petition.
- Single Petition: If you fail to set forth all grounds in this Petition challenging a specific judgment, you may be barred from presenting additional grounds challenging the same judgment at a later date.
- Factual Specificity: You must state facts, not conclusions, in support of your grounds. For example, if you are claiming incompetence of counsel you must state facts specifically setting forth what your attorney did or failed to do. A rule of thumb to follow is — state who did exactly what to violate your federal constitutional rights at what time or place.

GROUNDS FOR RELIEF

22. State concisely every ground on which you claim that you are being held in violation of the constitution, law or treaties of the United States. Summarize briefly the facts supporting each ground. If necessary, you may attach pages stating additional grounds and/or facts supporting each ground.

(a) GROUND ONE: Trial court, in violation of the 14th Amendment (Due Process), illegally enhanced sentence by using an out of state felony to double the maximum term in violation of P.C. § 667(a)(1). Supporting FACTS (state briefly without citing cases or law) Petitioner was sentenced in 1994, receiving the high term of 8 years under P.C. § 264. The trial judge then doubled this term to 16 years (Time 6 counts) by using an out of state felony under California's three strikes enhancement law. Based on new case law as of June, 2006, petitioner notes this enhancement doubling was illegal when applied to an out of state felony that did not include all the elements of the same serious felony under California law. Upon notice of Appeal from Sep. 27, 1994, petitioner's counsel noted judicial over-reaching, and objected to use of out of state priors as part of sentencing. The court refused this motion and allowed a Texas prior to be used (Court minutes Aug. 1, 1994). Petitioner has attempted to bring awareness to this error, but had no available legal basis until this recent case law was obtained.

Did you raise GROUND ONE in the California Supreme Court?

☒ Yes ☐ No.

(b) GROUND TWO: In violation of the 8th and 14th Amendment of US Court; trial judge abused her discretion in applying consecutive rather than concurrent sentences.

Supporting FACTS (state briefly without citing cases or law): Upon sentencing in 1994, trial judge applied multiple consecutive sentences based solely on recommendations of the District Attorney and probation officer. Petitioner notes while mitigation arguments were used at sentencing hearing, judge gave consecutive sentences in violation of [California law] rule 4.425. (Previous rule 425). As per Rule 4.425(a)(1): Petitioner notes his court were all in the same location, on same day, in same 7-8 hr. time frame, all in same room, all against same person, with the same over all objective as per charge § 264 is one over all assault. Thus this factor was not met to allow consecutive sentencing. Thus petitioner argues consecutive sentencing was abuse of discretion, violation of due process and cruel & unusual punishment. Petitioner request evidentiary hearing to resolve this illegal sentencing. Based on recent case law, court failed to instruct jury on multiple vs. single acts (or conspiracies) thus sentencing violated petitioner's due process rights.
